Mr. Nicholson Retires

Mr. Charles R. Nicholson, Assistant Postmaster, retired December 30, 1964, after 43 years of continuous postal service at the Hazard, Kentucky post office.

Mr. Nicholson began his postal career as a clerk and when city delivery service was established on November 1, 1922, he was Hazard's first city mail carrier. After carrying mail for a short time, he was appointed regular clerk and continued in that capacity until July 1, 1949, when he was appointed Assistant Postmaster.

Mr. Nicholson served under four postmasters: Mr. Deway Daniel, Mrs. Anna Mae Moore, Mrs. Allie D. Gorman and the present postmaster, Mr. Charles Cornett.

Mr. Nicholson and his wife reside in Hazard. They have one son, Charles, Jr., formerly of Hazard, but now working in the U. S. Post Office in Lexington, and one daughter, Mrs. Lewis Burkhardt, of Baltimore, Maryland.

Berman Gibson Files Eli Logan To Serve As Junior Vice Commander Of V. F. W. Post

Berman Gibson has filed for the democratic nomination for Sheriff of Perry County.

Gibson, president of the Appalachian Committee for Full Employment and leader of the 1962 roving picket movement, will compete for the party nomination with J. E. Combs, Hazard, and Yancy Amis, Buckhorn, the only other Democrats who have thus far announced for Sheriff.

Gibson lists his place of residence as Walkertown.

Republican candidates for the nomination are former City Policemen, Ira Kilburn, Avawam, and Carl Begley, Hazard.

The primary will be held May 25. Last date for filing for office is April 10.

Gibson, along with several others, was a defendant in two trials last year, one state, the other federal.

He was charged by the Commonwealth with allegedly beating and armed robbery incident on Pine Mountain in 1963, and of conspiracy to dynamite a railroad bridge at Daisy.

A Letcher County Circuit Court jury found him not guilty in the first case, and a federal judge dismissed the conspiracy charge after his trial in Lexington resulted in a hung jury.

Health Department Changes Hours For Clinic Days

Beginning Monday, January 18, clinic hours at the Perry County Health Department will be held each week on: MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY: 1 to 4 P. M., and SATURDAY: 8:00 A. M. to 12 NOON.

Anyone wishing clinical service at the Health Department should call during these hours, when a public health nurse is on duty, Dr. Lyndon F. Combs, Health Officer, says. He also wishes to remind the public that the Health Department is not open on legal holidays.

This clinic schedule has been maintained by the Health Department for many years, until last fall when the Multiple Screening Program for first grade school children and their parents was undertaken. Now that the follow-up work of this program has been completed, regular clinic hours will be resumed.

Local Board 81

Selective Service Board No. 81, Hazard, announced today that it is seeking the whereabouts of the following registrants: Duddy Campbell, Kyle Logan, Barter Campbell, Darryl Hatfield, Charlie Spicer, Jimmy D. Combs, Willie Miller, Doris Campbell, Billy Donald Shepherd, James Madison Davidson, Bruce Turner, and Silas Chaney.

Anyone knowing anything about these registrants is asked to contact the above office.

The Post Commander of Oliver Hazard Perry Post 7387, Veterans of Foreign Wars, declared the officer's position of Junior Vice Commander open at the meeting held January 14 and the members elected Eli Logan to fill the position until the regular election.

Mr. Logan, who is employed by H. A. Spalding, lives at Jeff, Kentucky. He is married and has two sons. Mr. Logan plans to run for Senior Commander in April and then for Post Commander in 1966.

The V.F.W. Santa Claus and his committee visited several county schools and the Open Door Children's Home at Cornettsville during Christmas. At each place the children really enjoyed their visits. "Our local Christmas party had one of the largest attendances", stated Commander Rogers.

These people having wheelchairs and crutches belonging to the VFW and who are not using them are urged to return them to the club. There is a waiting list for them.

The Chairman of the House Committee, Earl Brashear, would like to encourage the civic clubs and customers to use the VFW parking lot in back of the Club. He emphasized more than ever that during '65 the post would like to continue to work with the civic clubs and citizens of this area to make Hazard a better city in which to live.

The post has a house committee to supervise and make policies concerning the clubroom. If any of the club members or citizens of Hazard have any problems related to the clubroom, they are asked to contact Earl Brashear, Elmer Duff, Eugene Strunk, Devaughn Bolen or Floyd Hall.

Washington — It was announced today by Carl D. Perkins, Chairman, General Subcommittee on Education, U. S. House of Representatives, that the Subcommittee would initiate hearings on the President's proposals on Elementary and Secondary Education, H. R. 2361 and H. R. 2362, 9:00 a. m., Friday January 22 in the Regular Committee Hearing Room of the House Education and Labor Committee.

At the same time it was announced by Adam C. Powell, Chairman of the House Education and Labor Committee that he had designated February 15 as the target date for the Subcommittee to make its recommendations to the full Committee for further action on the President's recommendations.

Perkins indicated that the hearings would be initiated with testimony from Administration witnesses—Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, Anthony J. Celebrezze, Commissioner of the Office of Education, Francis Keppel, and other officials in the Administration.

I am introducing today H. R. 2362, the President's Education legislation in the field of our Elementary and Secondary programs.

Ever since I came to the Congress in 1948, I have been convinced of the great need for

Rumors; No Evidence Of More Mine Trouble

According to a story in today's Courier Journal, the United Mine Workers' recent plans for lowering the retirement age for miners and raising pensions is causing a new tenseness in the coalfields of Eastern Kentucky, due to the fact that it is largely the belief that these plans indicate that the UMW is preparing to launch a new all-out organization drive.

According to the story, the Eastern Kentucky coal operators are arming their workers, but in interviews with several local operators today, the Herald was informed that they knew nothing of this, other than the armed guards at Leatherwood mine, which has been the policy for several months.

The Courier-Journal story reads as follows:

"A new tenseness is spreading over the coalfields of Eastern Kentucky, based largely on the belief that the United Mine Workers are preparing to launch a new, all-out organization drive."

Operators are arming workers who have carried no arms since the roving picket movement of 1962. Some say frankly that a new picket movement is imminent, and that it will bring bloodshed and destruction unequalled in the history of coal mining.

"The operators, most of them wanting to remain anonymous, interpret the recent lowering of pension eligibility from age 60 to age 55 as the first step in the union's organization plans."

One spokesman who would be quoted is Robert Holcomb, president of the Pike County Independent Coal Miners Association.

"This all goes back to the U.M.W.'s meeting in Miami last fall," he said. "The U.M.W. announced then that it will spend several million dollars if necessary to organize the mines."

It looks now like their first move was to change their welfare setup. They are encouraging old members to come back in, pay up past dues, and qualify for pensions at an early age."

"What this amounts to is that they will have a new army of pensioners to throw into the picket lines."

"This lower pension age isn't any act of kindness. The U.M.W. has never been that kind-hearted before. Loyalty to the union and its objectives will be a pledge that the returning members must make."

"If the U.M.W. can get trouble started, it will. I won't be at all surprised if trouble comes."

"You have to remember that just a year or two ago the U.M.W. said its welfare fund was in such bad shape that it couldn't any longer support the U.M.W. hospitals. Now, all at once, the welfare fund is in such good shape that it can pay pensions five years earlier than before."

Union is Always Ready

"Joe Davis of the District 30 office at Pikeville said the U.M.W. is always ready to organize, but that the more generous welfare provisions should not be considered a part of the new organization drive."

"As you know," he said, "If you are past 40, they (operators) won't give you a job."

The new provision is to take care of hundreds like this who can't get work.

"As for Holcomb, he's afraid he might have to pay a man a decent wage."

"And if there is a bloody war like they (operators) say, they will be to blame."

One of the larger Perry County operators said his men share with him a feeling that a fresh outbreak of violence is "just around the corner."

More Guards Planned

"We are prepared to add to our guard force with enough men to station in the hills around our operation, night and day. Anybody who looks like a thief or a dynamiter will get it," he said.

He said the coal truckers will be one of the bigger forces resisting any mass movement to unionize the mines.

"Just consider," he said, "that these men number in the hundreds, and each one is an individual businessman. He knows the mines must stay open if his business is to survive."

"The trucker has at stake his investment. He can make payments of $600 to $700 a month on his truck. And if he is a good mechanic, taking good care of his truck, his expenses such as fuel, repairs, and depreciation, will run about $300 or a little over per month.

"Even after this and after he deducts his own wages, he can clear $10,000 to $12,000 a year on his investment."

Two Riders Predicted

"If mass picketing starts again, you will see two riders in every truck, one driving and the other 'riding shotgun'."

There were some instances the last time (1962) when some truckers were stopped and beaten. They will try to avoid that this time."

A large number of small and large independent operators were in agreement that a powder keg situation appears to be developing.

Some in Perry County believe the current picketing of the No. 1 mine of Blue Diamond Coal Company near the Harlan and Leslie County lines is a starter in an all-out campaign."

"Claiming a total force of 150 pickets, the men have picketed the two entrances to the mine and the town of Leatherwood for nearly a week."

"The men claim their role is 'peaceful picketing,' and no violence has occurred on the lines. However, on Wednesday night the jeep of Melvin Collins was fired into from a mountainside. Collins and four workers were riding from their jobs at Blue Diamond, according to State Police, and five or six bullets were fired. Just one hit the back of the jeep and nobody was hurt. Two

SALES TAX DEDUCTIONS—This table is to be used by Kentuckians who itemize sales tax deductions on their 1964 Kentucky individual income tax returns. It is identical to the Federal table for deducting sales tax. In issuing this table, the Kentucky Department of Revenue said previous deductibility tables are now obsolete. If this table is used no additional deductions for sales tax payments will be allowed. If sales tax deductions are made without use of the table, an itemized list of sales tax payments must accompany the return.

State Reports On Junk Yard Dealers Law

After six months of enforcement, only one-third of Kentucky's junkyard dealers have complied with the state's screening law and have been issued permits. Highway Commissioner Henry Ward announced today.

Better compliance will have to be achieved, Ward said. Enforcement of the law, which requires dealers to erect screens shielding their yards from motorists or move the yards, began July 1, 1964. From that date through December 31, 283 of the state's 863 known junkyards erected screens.

Ward also noted that 57 percent—491—of the total junkyards had submitted applications for permits during the first six months of enforcement. Plans for screening are submitted with applications and permits are issued after suitable screens have been erected.

Ward said a survey revealed there were 937 junkyards in Kentucky last June as compared to 833 at the end of 1964.

He added that most of the dealers who left the business were those who kept only a few junk vehicles and don't feel it worth it to move or screen their yards and pay the $50 permit fee.

Mine Trouble

30.30 rifle hulls were found on the mountainside.

Also on the same night State police said, a stick of dynamite was thrown into the yard of Jimmy Engle, another Blue Diamond worker, at Chavies. A window was blown out but no one was hurt.

Pickets Blame 'Thugs' "Sgt. Willard Mitchell, in charge of the Hazard post of the State police, said the two incidents should not necessarily be taken as an indication of things to come.

At the same time, he said, he has alerted Frankfort headquarters that a "potentially bad situation" appears to be in the making, and that added forces might be needed on short notice.

(Ed Note: The Hazard Herald contacted Sgt. Mitchell today while he was on duty at Lees Ferry. According to Mitchell the miners are very quiet and no sign of guns has been seen.

Raymond Tipton, a spokesman for the pickets, said "gun thugs" of the company were trying to stir up trouble and make it difficult for the pickets to remain in peaceful demonstration.

"We have been hearing what sounds like cherry bombs or gun shots in the hollows," he said. "I think they want us to take the blame so that an injunction can be taken against us. Right now, though, our picketing is 100 percent peaceful. Not a man among us has a gun, and we are going to keep it that way."

(A firecracker or other small explosive is called a "cherry bomb.")

The pickets display signs that say they represent the U.M.W. They say they are U.M.W. members who lost their jobs when the Blue Diamond Company closed up as a union mine last year and reopened on a non-union basis. They estimated that "at least 35" U.M.W. members who were "sweet-talked" into working nonunion had quit the mine and joined their lines.

"We want a contract and we want our jobs back," Tipton said. The others agreed."

Peter Howard

In the past month Peter Howard, British author, playwright and political commentator, has spoken at the following seventeen universities and colleges—Amherst, Dartmouth, Flisk, Iowa State, Macalester, Marylhurst, Montreal, New Brunswick, Oregon State, Puget Sound, San Fernando Valley State, Seattle, Stanford, Tennessee State, Vanderbilt, Western Michigan and Wyoming.

They represent Ivy League and modern campuses, Negro and women's colleges, East Coast, West Coast, South, mid-Western and Canadian. He has received invitations to address 53 other colleges as soon as possible.

Everywhere Mr. Howard has been a success—a man who speaks for the reality of a mighty purpose. The bursts of applause, standing ovations, cross fire of eager questions, testified to the response to Mr. Howard's theme—the modernization of man to match the perils and opportunities of the age.

Peter Howard is in charge of the world program of Moral Re-Armament. Here is the substance of what he has said to American youth.

Peter Howard addressed 17 universities and colleges in his 19,000 mile tour of the United States and Canada.

Tomorrow Will Be Too Late

By Peter Howard

We are living in a time of tremendous opportunity in the world, and also of very great hazard and danger. You have what is called "proliferation". First, the proliferation of the bomb. America has the bomb, and I thank God for it. I hope never in your lifetime, or mine, does any power have to use it. Russia has the bomb. China has exploded what is called an "unsophisticated" bomb. France is perfecting a bomb. My country has some kind of a bomb. Israel says she is going to make a bomb, and so does Egypt. Sukarno says next year he will have a bomb and it is possible, because America gave him a reactor from which bombs can be made.

What is the reaction of free society to the proliferation of the bomb? It appears to me to be the proliferation of division. We are more divided than we ever were before. Broken homes have come to be accepted as common. There is color war, class war. Even now there is an intense division growing between youth and age. Division is not a very intelligent reaction to the proliferation of the bomb.

Secondly, you have the proliferation of population. Those of you who live to the year 2,000 will live in a world where 6,000,000,000 fellow citizens live with you. It means at the same time we have to double the food production of the world.

What is our answer? It is a proliferation of impurity. Premarital indulgence is increasingly accepted. All standards are being pulled down. It seems a highly unintelligent answer to the proliferation of population.

Thirdly, you have the proliferation of evil. The vast powers of Russia and China say their aims can never succeed until the myth of God is removed from the mind of man, and that "our morality is wholly subordinate to the class struggle." Of course Lenin's conception of morality simply means, "What suits us is right and what suits them is wrong." It is relative morality. Once you adopt that system of morality what do you have to say to a Hitler or a Stalin? You have no relative morality and they have none.

In modern society we are faced with the proliferation of evil with the proliferation of what is called "the new morality", which simply means the old immorality. I don't think it is a very intelligent answer.

The Way America Goes

The future of our liberty depends on America. The world will go the way America goes. If America submits to the way of totalitarianism across the face of the world, if America goes to war, we shall all be destroyed. If America patterns a revolutionary society big enough to include everybody in the rebuilding of the world, and lives with a discipline that changes everybody—Communist and non-Communist, white and black, Right and Left—I think we shall see the rebirth of civilization, perhaps the rebirth of what used to be called Judeo-Christian civilization. I am sure that is the only intelligent reaction to the proliferation of the bomb, of population and of evil.

I am passionately FOR America. But I would like as a friend to describe what I see about some failures of American policy. Take China. There was a gentleman there called Chiang Kai-shek. He was in charge of China and he fought bravely. We, the Americans and the British, insisted that Chiang Kai-shek take Communists into his government. We withdrew armed support from Chiang Kai-shek. He went to Formosa. Now in his stead you have a Communist regime. Chiang Kai-shek may have done many things which were wrong. Personally, I think he was smeared in a masterful way across the world. Are we sure the regime which supplanted him was better for the future of man?

A friend of mine saw Chou En-lai last year. He told me, "I discussed the danger of atomic war. Chou En-lai said to me, 'War is not only inevitable but necessary if Communism is to triumph. And we are willing to risk three hundred million lives in such a war.'"

Then, there was Batista in Cuba. He was all the things we most dislike. Corruption. We tut-tutted at him and pulled him down and brought in that great agrarian reformer, Castro. People I know in New York financed him with four million dollars. People hoped to do big business. But I am not sure, in the light of history, whether it was a very notable advance to put down Batista and install Castro.

In answer to that, I have just been invited to go to Latin America this next year because they say Moral Re-Armament is the answer to Castroism. They say their "culture is being torn up by the roots. Our people will no longer listen to the West. They do still listen to Moral Re-Armament." We do not have the resources of government. But we are going to do our best.

There was a gentleman called Diem. I knew him. He was five foot high, a proud little man. He only spoke French. You had to make your way with him. He said to me, "Can you help me with the Americans? We know we owe everything in Viet Nam to America—they built roads, schools, libraries—but they will not listen to anything I try to tell them about my country."

Diem may have had difficult female relatives, but he was one of the best friends your country had in that part of the world. He appears to have been about the one man able to hold some measure of stability in Viet Nam. He was killed. The story was told in the United States that he persecuted the Buddhists. I was glad to see, after he was killed, that Mr. Phillips, a distinguished member of the U. S. State Department, had the grace to admit there had been no religious pressure or persecution under Diem.

There is a gentleman called Tshombe. Any person must be appalled at the sav-agery that is going on in the Congo. When Tshombe was in top political power, the U. S. smeared him and chased him out of the country. If that was right, what is he doing running the country with U. S. help today?

Stubborn Fools or Wicked Men

Mr. Richard Nixon wrote an interesting article in the November issue of the 'Reader's Digest'. In that article he tells some of the story of the Cuban crisis and he writes about particular elements in the State Department. Reading that important document, as a foreigner, I come to one of two conclusions: Either there is a section of the State Department that is run by crass idiots and stubborn fools, or by wicked men. If I were an American, I would tell Mr. Nixon to put up or shut up, because if what that man says is true, it is deadly dangerous. If what he says is not true, he is deadly dangerous.

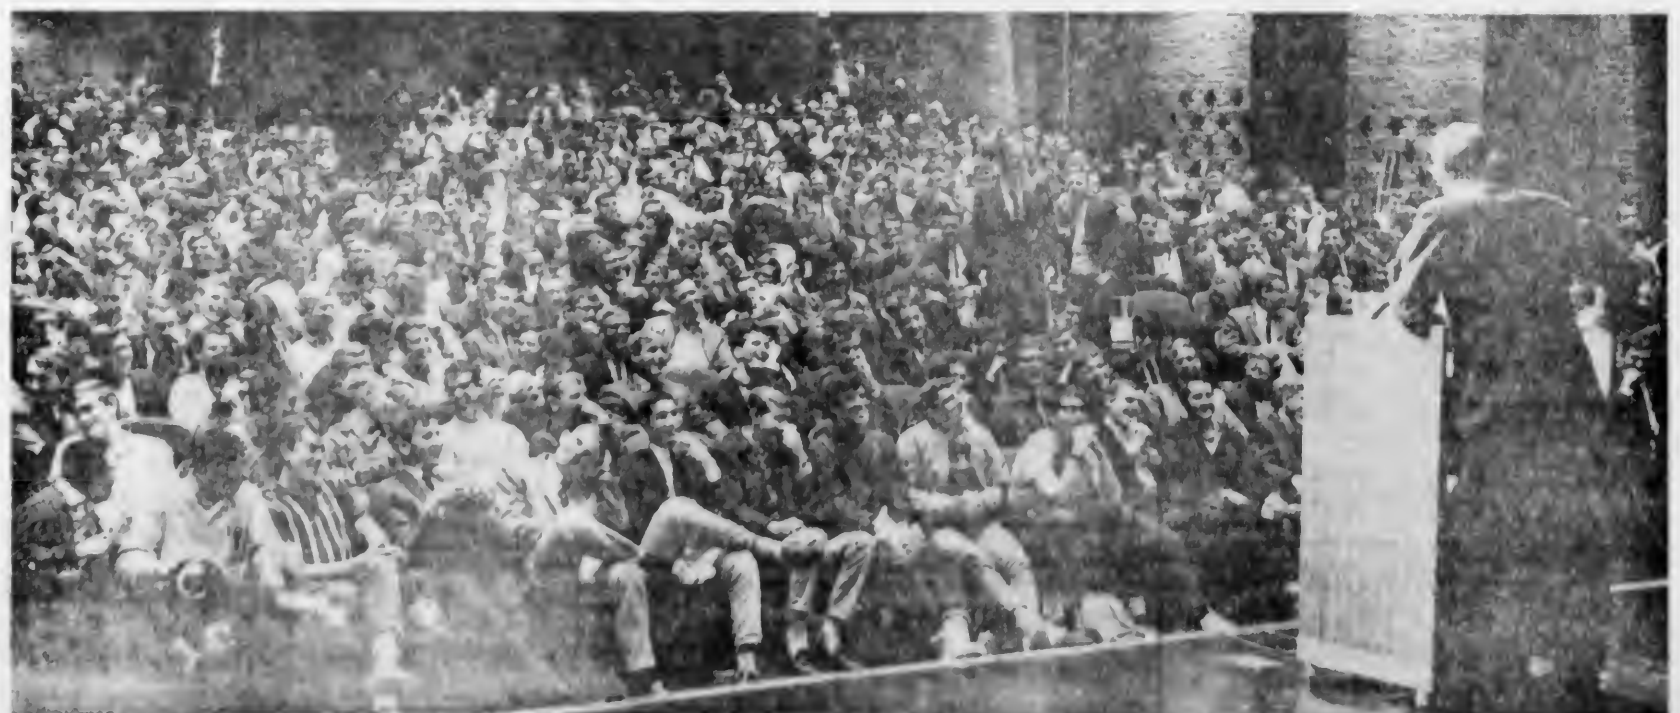

Our lack as a free society is an ideology—a world goal far bigger than anything concocted by Communism or the filthy apparatus of Fascism, and the discipline to pursue it of our own free will. I take "Thy Will be done on earth as it is in Heaven" seriously, not as a pious hope, but as a passionate commitment. If we do that, we shall inherit a world remade.

Can't we take it on together and start living on the basis of what is right, not who is right? It would have to be demonstrated. A campus could show it, a state could show it. Then they could talk to President Johnson with his dreams of a Great Society. Because a great society won't be built by landscaping the country. I am bound to tell you that a great society is only created by great people. Big purses don't make a great society; big welfare schemes don't; laws, however important—and they are important—don't make people great. What makes people great is greatness of character, people free from the selfishness, the fears, the hates and the greeds that have made so many nations small in the midst of prosperity and power.

I firmly believe that Moral Re-Armament is the revolutionary issue of our time. It is the next step for America and the whole world. If you happen to believe in God, you can call it God's weapon for the hour, and God's philosophy for the century. If not, then call it plain common sense. It is neither left nor right. It believes in sound homes, teamwork in industry, unity in the nation, and a rebuilt world as the normal commitment for every man, woman and child in a free society. It declares that the only sane people in an insane world are those who will start to live today as mankind must live if we are to survive; caring enough to share enough so all men have enough; daring enough to cross the barriers of language, race and narrow nationalism that divide the earth. It believes in love of home, love of homeland and love of humanity, a love strong enough to pay the price of seeing all those places—home, homeland and humanity—become different.

Young Americans who take up this task will be the Washingtons and Lincolns in this age of staggering danger and opportunity. They won't only see those who inherit the earth from them rise up and call them blessed, but they will have the time of their lives in doing it.

Kiwanis Clubs Present 'Blank Checks Of Community Service'

KPA's 1963-64 Award Winner: Best Freedom of Information

Thursday, January 21, 1965, Kiwanis Clubs in hundreds of cities and towns will present "blank checks of community service" to their mayors or other community leaders. Each will pledge the achievement of special projects during 1965, as the club's Golden Anniversary meeting of the club.

The Golden Anniversary of the club, and to pledge continued service in the future, Kiwanis will see some 265,000 members in fifteen nations of the free world joining together to thank their host communities for the opportunity of serving in North America, the Far East, the Caribbean, and Western Europe. It is a service organization for men, which has become one of the world's largest.

Details of Golden Anniversary plans were revealed here by George H. Pendleton, President of the Hazard Kiwanis Club.

Highlight, internationally, of the January 21 birth date will be a giant anniversary celebration in Detroit's Cobo Hall exhibition center. More than 3,500 people, Kiwanians and their wives, from every area served by Kiwanis, will be on hand. Edward B. Moylan, Jr. of Miami, Florida, will give the principal address. Last living founder of Kiwanis, Harry A. Young of Detroit, will be specially honored.

Observance at Detroit, and in hundreds of other communities where Kiwanis serves, will kick off a year of Golden Anniversary activity. There will be traditional Golden Anniversary balls and parties, and a Golden Anniversary Convention of Kiwanis International itself in New York City in early July which is expected to attract some 25,000 people. This will be the largest convention in Kiwanis history. In late summer and early fall each of Kiwanis' thirty districts will hold Golden Anniversary conventions, as well.

"Observance of this kind will be but a fraction of the activity, though," Club President Pendleton said. "The really significant part of the year's program will be the pledging of specific goals by each club, in each of Kiwanis' major youth and community service fields of endeavor, and the accomplishment of these goals as Golden Anniversary gifts to host communities. The 'blank check of service,' properly filled in, is but the first of such pledges," he said.

Edward B. Moylan, Jr., Miami, Florida, President of Kiwanis International, points to some of the thousands of "blank checks of community service" which Kiwanis clubs will fill in and present to the mayors of their communities on January 21 to mark the Golden Anniversary of Kiwanis International.

Mr. Walter F. Carey, President of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, said:

"The nation's Kiwanis clubs have contributed greatly toward building community leaders, many of whom have become leaders in local Chambers of Commerce and in the National Chamber too. By providing a forum for the dissemination of information, the Kiwanis clubs have helped to instruct communities on vital issues. For individual citizens they have opened up new horizons and awakened a deeper sense of civic responsibility. This is a quality of service that our nation will need even more in the decades to come."

From Mrs. Dorothy M. Ford, President of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, came this message:

"The goals of our Federation are similar to those of Kiwanis International in many respects. We have worked together in partnership, sharing the responsibility of many community projects. We have striven to elevate the standards in business and professional men and women, and to promote better opportunities and understanding for our youth. It has been gratifying to work with you and most helpful to have your assistance. I know our mutual efforts have resulted in a strong bond of respect and lasting friendship. Our sincere congratulations and very best wishes are with you. May you continue to build a better America, a better world in the next fifty years."

Planned locally, according to Club President Pendleton, the Hazard Kiwanis Club will celebrate Golden Anniversary Night Tuesday, January 19, at which time Mayor Willie Dawahare and other local dignitaries will be guests of the club.

Do You Know?

Are you aware of the fact that it costs us 10c each time you move and do not bother to advise us of your change of address? We would appreciate it greatly if you would take time to send a change of address card as soon as you know you are going to move. These cards are available from the post office, free of charge. It costs you 4c to advise us. It costs us 10c if you fail to do so. Last month's mailing of The Herald revealed that several of you had moved but had not advised us of the fact. Please help us save, for other causes, the funds now being spent to redeem your new addresses from the post office. We feel sure you will cooperate now that you know the situation. Thanks again!
